

The Dryden Town Historical Society
Presents

"History Under Foot and Resources for Discovering It"

Dryden - Lot 59 - from 1853 map

with guest speaker,

David Waterman

Google Earth map of area - 2014

Wednesday - April 9th - 7 PM
Dryden Village Hall
(corner of George and South streets)

It all began when David Waterman's dog started digging up patent medicine bottles in the yard. Suddenly, he noticed there were artifacts all over and realized, with the help of the Dryden Town Historical Society, he could discover their origins. But Waterman didn't stop there. He traced the time line of his property - within the area designated as Lot 59 on the New Military Tract - back to the Revolutionary War soldier who was originally granted ownership of the property and the grandson who inherited it.

Join the Dryden Town Historical Society on Wednesday, April 9th, beginning at 7 PM in the Dryden Village Hall (at the corner of George and South Streets) to watch a PowerPoint presentation on Waterman's research and learn how to go about digging up the history of your own property .

The doors will open at 6:30 PM to view displays and, as always, this event is free and open to all with donations gratefully accepted.
